TWO-SPIRIT PEOPLE: RESISTANCE AND DECOLONIZATION
PRESENTED BY QWO-LI DRISKILL

6 PM

RECTOR'S ROOM, WEBB CENTER

Two-Spirit people, indigenous people who fall outside of European binary gender systems, have been resisting the colonization of the Americas and the colonization of Indigenous bodies and gender systems since 1492.

This lecture will address movements, memories, and histories of Two-Spirit resistance and decolonization.

Qwo-Li Driskill is an assistant professor in the Department of English at Texas A&M University S/he is a Cherokee Two-Spirit/Queer writer, activist, and scholar.
