

3RD ANNUAL
TEAGUE-CRUMPLER LECTURE

Asegi Diganogidv/Queer Songs:
Cherokee Poetry and Two-Spirit Resistance

Qwo-Li Driskill

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Qwo-Li Driskill is a Cherokee Two-Spirit/Queer writer, scholar, educator, activist, and performer also of African, Irish, Lenape, Lumbee, and Osage ascent and the author of Walking with Ghosts: Poems.

Thursday, March 24

7:00PM

Bate 1026

ALSO

Language, Diversity,
and Writing in the Classroom

Please join Qwo-Li Driskill, Patrick Bizzaro, and ECU faculty in a roundtable discussion about diversity in the classroom and in writing.

2:00pm

Bate 1005

Sponsored by
The Teague-Crumpler Fund
The University Writing Program
The Department of English

Individuals requesting accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) should call 252-737-1016 (voice/TTY) at least 48 hours prior to the event.